LBBW Bank CZ started new school year at the German school in Prague

LBBW Bank CZ continues with the partnership of the German school in Prague also in the new school year 2010/2011. LBBW Bank has been supporting the school since 2009 and also this year was present during the gala start of the new school year. The school representatives welcomed the new students and their families as well as the sponsors on September 2nd.

Monika Beuerle, new director of the school, informed about the school's goals and plans for this year and presented the leisure time activities prepared for the students as well as Parent's council and German catholic and protestant church in Prague.

„This event was organized by the Parent's council with the aim to inform all our new and current students' parents about the school's operations and the extra activities. I had the pleasure to welcome the participants of this event, meet the people and invite everyone to our Oktoberfest which will be held on October 16 from 4 pm to 9 pm. We will use a part of LBBW Bank's financial support to organize this event,” says Mrs. Beuerle, new director of the German school.

Note for editors

LBBW Bank CZ a.s. has been present on the Czech banking market since 1991, and over the years it has established a firm position as a modern and universal commercial bank. From September 1, 2008 Landesbank Baden-Württemberg (LBBW) has been its 100% shareholder. LBBW Bank CZ a.s. provides top-class services in the area of corporate, retail, investment and international banking as well as on the financial markets. LBBW Bank was selected and awarded by experts as the Third Most Dynamic Bank of the Year 2008.

In the past, the bank has changed both its shareholder and its name. Under the name of LBBW Bank CZ a.s. it has been known as of September 17, 2008. Until this time the bank was active on the Czech market under the name of BAWAG Bank CZ a.s.

Landesbank Baden-Württemberg (LBBW) is both a commercial bank and the central bank of the savings banks in Baden-Württemberg, Saxony and Rhineland-Palatinate. With total assets of EUR 412 billion and more than 13,000 employees (as of 31 Dec. 2009), LBBW is one of the largest banks in Germany, and in its core market Baden-Württemberg it is by far the most important one. Its core activities are the private customer business and the business with corporate customers, in particular small and medium-sized enterprises, as well as savings banks. A further focus is placed on real-estate financing and the customer-oriented capital market business with banks, savings banks and institutional investors. Together with its regional customer banks Baden-Württembergische Bank (BW-Bank), Rheinland-Pfalz Bank and Sachsen Bank, LBBW services more than one million private customers and 27,000 corporate customers in more than 200 branch offices – for many of these customers, they have been the main banker for many years. LBBW is
